Galori C. – Manulife Customer

[Galori appears on the screen and starts sharing her story.]

I always felt like having insurance was important. I just didn't realize the value of it until this unfortunate situation happened with us. My cousin fell ill and passed away. She was like my little sister. She's a pretty smart cookie, so she knew what insurance was right for her and I was put in the position where I had to take care of her daughter. Manulife took the financial burden of taking care of her home. Had she not had the mortgage protection insurance, it would've been very hard for us to move forward and knowing that I wouldn't have to worry about paying for that mortgage was a huge sigh of relief for us. You know, what they promised is what we got. The minute that I made the phone call to the minute things were paid out, I don't even think it was a month. It's made me think about my own future making sure I've got the right things in place for my own kids. Insurance is important. Look into it because life changes so quickly. You never really know what's going to happen.
